

Who we are

Aqualapka offers more than just a premium drink; it's a symbol of pet health and well-being. It brings joy and energy to both pets and their owners, who want the best for their furry friends. We're proud to be the top choice among veterinarians and breeders, thanks to our products' safety, quality, and effectiveness, proven by specialized research.

"YOUR PET'S HEALTH IS OUR TOP PRIORITY"

- This is our motto and guiding principle that determines the direction of our brand's development.

Working with the best

Our manufacturing partner works very closely with the group of veterinarian experts who specialize in the treatments of dogs and cats, to name just a few.

The Veterinary Centre have decades of professional experience and hold a degree in small animal clinical veterinary medicine and are members of the Hungarian Small Animal Orthopedic Association.

The clinic serves the University of Veterinary Medicine for the practical training of small animal clinical veterinarians and participates in the practical training of veterinary students.

The doctors place great emphasis on the balanced and conscious feeding of pets. They highly recommend our drinks in daily pet hydration needs, and based on its composition, our products can be consumed in unlimited quantities and serve as a water substitute.
